

Moreton Bay Research Station (MBRS) Register of Regulations

1. Objectives

- Identify relevant legislation, regulations and standards pertaining to The University of Queensland activities; and
- Maintain a Register of Regulations.

2. Scope

The scope of the Register of Regulations is limited to the following environmental areas:

- Solid and Hazardous Wastes;
- Environmental Noise;
- Air Quality;
- Energy;
- Water; and
- Land.

3. Preparation

The Property and Facilities Division, Environmental Services Section, is responsible for the preparation and maintenance of the Register of Regulations.

4. Custody

The Register of Regulations is by Environmental Services, Property and Facilities Division. The register is part of this procedure and is located at:

- Property and Facilities Division computer network under the {g:\!Operations\!Environment\Ems_Website\Ems\Sites_Ems\MBRS\pro_RegsMbrs} directory};
- In The University of Queensland MBRS EMS Manual.

5. Reviews

The Register of Regulations shall be reviewed continuously as follows:

- Environmental Services, Property and Facilities Division, is responsible for reviewing the register;
- The review process incorporates the Standards Australia Website and State Government Legislation Update Service. Items not covered by an update service are checked on an annual basis with relevant authorities and agencies, in the first half of each year, or as necessary.
